Application for the Sally and Alan Cone Grant
For Graduate Student Travel for Conference Presentations

Date of Application:_______________

Name: _______________________________ Student ID# :_______________ Department:__________

Home phone:________________________ Work phone:_________________

Address:_______________________________________________________________

Permanent address_______________________________________________________
(If different)

Email address: ______________________

Title of Paper:_____________________________________________

Title of Conference: _________________________________________

Funding Amount Requested:______________________

Have you previously received travel funding from the Cone Awards? _____ If yes, when? __________

Signature of Faculty Advisor: _______________________________________

Student Signature: ________________________________

Accompany applications with an abstract of the presentation of up to one page that clearly explains the argument of the paper or nature of the creative work and its relevance to the critical conversations in the field of Women’s and Gender Studies. Applicants should also include a brief description of the conference (copies of the conference call for papers and/or the website homepage describing the conference are acceptable) and a budget clearly outlining how funds will be spent and the total amount requested. Finally, please also attach a copy of the completed GSA travel fund application with this Cone application. It is not necessary to have secured GSA funds, but it is necessary to seek GSA support in addition to Cone funds.

Individual awards are capped at $500.

Materials should be submitted to the Women’s and Gender Studies Office, 200 Foust, between August 15 and April 1 for a decision within a month.