Sally and Alan Cone WGS Course Scholarships

Eligibility: Undergraduate or Graduate status; interest in Women’s and Gender Studies

Each semester, up to three $450 scholarships will be available for undergraduate or graduate students seeking to enroll in a Women’s and Gender Studies course. The applicant must be currently enrolled or have been admitted as an undergraduate or graduate student. Selection will be made on the basis of financial need, life and work experience, community service and/or leadership. To be funded, the application must include a well-written essay of no more than 500 words that contains the following:

- A clear and compelling description of the applicant’s interest in women’s and gender studies. This should include a description of the applicant’s educational and career goals and their relationship to the WGS Program.
- Life/work experience community service, and leadership as it relates to WGS.

Applications due December 1, 2014

All applications should be turned in as e-mail attachments to womens_studies@uncg.edu. Please include "Cone Award - Course Scholarship" in the subject line.

Visit http://wgs.uncg.edu/research/ConeStudents.html#coursescholarship for the application.